

1. Opening Salvo for Still Bombadil Issue #2

Alright, tell me when you're ready
I'm prepared

2. Is It In Your Face, Your Eyes, For Eternity

I can look at you and I can smile at you but I can't listen to what you're telling me right now

I can look at you and I can smile at you
but I can't listen to what you're telling me right now

Now is it in your face, is it in your eyes, for eternity

I can talk with you and I can sit with you but I can't ever understand how or why

Once more I hold it inside
Doesn't it take two ears to listen

3. Power's Out

I'm catching up on my reading
I'm eating all the things in my fridge that are going to go bad

Oh the electricity it went out
Oh how swiftly it blackened the house

I tried to call my mother to tell her that I love her
But the phones are still pretty bad

Stuck in the dark with you

4. Stone Path, I Can Walk On You

Walking is something I do with my mind Lost in thought I look down to find my Stone path
I can walk on you

Straight, narrow, it's easy to stroll Bricks line up to avoid holes on my

Stone path
I can walk on you

Sometimes I look up at the sky
It's beautiful to see
But now I wonder what I'm missing
When my mind is never looking where the path should be

Stone path, I can for you

5. Three Legged Dog

Saw a dog walking down the road
Had three legs still walked pretty good

Dog with three legs are you looking for a home
Please take me instead

I want that dog so bad to be mine
I hope my mom she won't mind

Dog with three legs are you looking for a home
Please take me instead

Three legged dog

Are you looking for a home? Please take me instead

Three legged dog

6. Girlfriend Politician

Living at my mothers' on a second hand couch Working as a busboy at the corner In-N-Out

I'm waiting on politicians
A vegan flipping burgers in a big fat kitchen

My girlfriend's pushing on me and I see no way out

7. Chicago Surf Rock for the Heat Wave

Hey, you're on a Chicago speed wave
Hey Mag Mile sunshine
The classical radio plays

Michigan girls with sunbrellas
The lake is hot and so are the fellas
Don't be jealous

Hey, you're on a Chicago heat wave
Hey, good thing the streets aren't paved
Hey, eat a hot dog and some ice that's shaved

Michigan girls with sunbrellas
The lake is hot and so are the fellas
Don't be jealous

Comiskey Park are you surfing today
The L is running without delay

Chicago Heat Wave

8. Chicago Surf Birds

Will there be birds?
Will there be swirg?

Every single morning
Even in the evening
I need something to keep pleasing me because I can't keep seated in a world that hasn't got

9. Send Me Down The Tar River and Let Me Sleep

Old folks
sit by the fireplace and stare at the empty space between their knees

Young hopes pulls in the bitter taste and feels that it's such a waste and bite their teeth

Put me on a bus
Roll me down that Tar River
Make it for both of us
Send me down that Tar River and let me sleep

More smoke pours out from the fireplace and death has a kindly face for those in need

Red strokes
painted on your suitcase and marks the bus you'll take while you count sheep

Put me on a bus
Roll me down that Tar River
Make it for both of us
Send me down that Tar River and let me sleep

Let me sleep the day away
We've been tossed away
Let me sleep the day away
We're all lost

Young folks
please don't you waste your time most likely that you will find your dreams have faded

The old hope
Of making the most of it has become just such a joke when you're old and creaking

Put me on a bus
Roll me down that Tar River
Make it for both of us
Send me down that Tar River and let me sleep

Roll that Tar River
